DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 39-58 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites at lines 7-9 "wherein the difference in the number of carbon atoms in the at least one first comonomer of the first interpolymer and the at least one second comonomer of the second interpolymer is at least two," without providing proper antecedent basis for the "at least one second comonomer of the second interpolymer." As such, the claim is deemed to be vague and confusing.

In claim 40, the recitation at lines 3-6 of "wherein the polymer blend has an intrinsic tear value within 35% of the intrinsic tear value of a second polymer blend having the same composition as the polymer blend except that the first ethylene interpolymer of the second polymer blend comprises ethylene and 1-octene" renders the claim as vague and confusing since the claim fails to recite what the first polymer of the of the first blend is composed of or what either polymer of the second blend may comprise other than "having the same composition". The polymers may have the same composition of materials, yet they may be blended in different proportions. Further, the composition of the first polymer of the second blend is that the first ethylene interpolymer of the second polymer blend comprises ethylene and 1-octene, yet it cannot be determined what the second polymer may comprise solely based upon the recitation of "the difference in the number of carbon atoms in the at least one first comonomer of the first interpolpolymer and the at least one second comonomer of the second interpolpolymer is at least two". Are there at least two more carbon atoms, at least two less carbon atoms or can either situation prevail? As such, the claim is deemed to be vague and confusing.

Claim 45 is deemed to be vague since the claim has not been properly ended.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 39-58 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-39 of U.S. Patent No. 6,723,398. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the inclusion values for the molecular weight distribution of either interpolymer would be inherently possessed by the compositions recited and claimed in the patent. All other parameters are identical.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 39-58 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Chum et al.

Art Unit: 1711

The applied reference has a common assignee with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.
